Staff present: Pfister, Timm, Trebatoski, Posnik, Atty Stadler and Wallace

3.a. Discussion/direction on possible development of rules and regulations of the Police Commission: Krauski stated after going through the handbook last year she asked the Chief if the Commission had a guide and she was informed there wasn't one. She reached out to Atty Stadler for advice and he offered to develop a guide for the Commission. She thought it would be more advisable to discuss what the Commission thinks might be an appropriate document that we can use to guide the Commission. Atty Stadler stated rules and regulations can be helpful especially as Commissioners change. Commissioner's discussed and gave the following comments to help develop the guide: look at bylaws from other communities, establish rules, transparency, process to setup hearings, process for citizen complaints, structure, discipline process, evaluate hiring and firing process, evaluate process for promotions, appeal process, establish public comment rules, scope of authority, commission procedures, appointment of officers, and review guide annually.

Commissioner's agreed to have Atty Stadler create a rough draft guide for the Commissioner's to work off. Atty Stadler stated he will work with the Chief and Krauski. He will have the draft ready by May for the Commissioner's and HR to review and to pick out sections for discussion. This is a great defensive tool.

5. Stipulations to changes in deadlines.
6. Hearing date.

6.7 Setting Date of Hearing. The Board, through its attorney, shall set a date for a hearing on the charges not less than ten (10) days, nor more than thirty (30) days following service of charges upon the person charged.

These lists shall be filed with the Board no less than ninety-six (96) hours prior to the scheduled commencement of the hearing. These lists and a copy of each document should be exchanged by the parties not less than ninety-six (96) hours prior to the scheduled commencement of evidentiary proceedings. A unified joint list of exhibits filed not less than ninety-six (96) hours prior to the commencement of evidentiary proceedings will fulfill the requirements of this rule if the parties can reach agreement on such a list.

6.8.2 Parties shall exchange and file notice of any objections to such proposed exhibits not less than twenty-four (24) hours prior to the scheduled commencement of the hearing. This notice of objection shall state concisely the grounds for objection but need not present argument or authority.

Generally, any witness may testify regarding matters about which that witness has personal knowledge and may be examined as to their credibility. The rules of evidence regarding the examination of witnesses and evidence obtained as customarily used in Circuit Court will be waived so as not to exclude possible relevant evidence. All evidence will be received and accorded whatever weight and credibility is appropriate. The Board may designate its attorney to act as a hearing examiner and rule on evidentiary issues. Any party may appeal any ruling by the Board's attorney to the Board, who shall rule thereon. Parties will not be prevented from calling rebuttal witnesses whose names are not included on the lists for good cause shown and accepted by the Board. The names of witnesses discovered after the lists are exchanged shall be provided to the opposing party within a reasonable time period. Neither party will be required to call all of the witnesses listed on their witness list.

6.11.2 The accused may be called adversely by the Complainant or the Board and subject to Section 62.13, Wis. Stats., examined by each Board Member as to the charges. If the accused refuses to testify upon the grounds of self-incrimination, the Chairperson or attorney for the Board shall advise the accused that the accused will be questioned on matters specifically, directly and narrowly relating to the performance of the accused's duties concerning the charges filed pursuant to Garrity. Any failure to answer may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination being imposed upon the accused by the Board. However, any answers given and any fruits thereof cannot be used against the accused in any criminal proceedings. The accused will be further advised that failure to answer any of the questions may result in the Board's drawing of an adverse inference as to the accused's credibility and/or innocence of the charges filed against the accused.

6.11.3 Members of the Board may question any witness at any time, but generally shall adhere to the following procedure:

1. Commissioners may reserve their questions of the witness until the parties have completed all direct and cross examination.
2. Before the witness is excused, commissioners may briefly confer in order to identify areas of interest for further inquiry.
3. Questions on behalf of the Board may be posed by the Board's legal counsel or by the Chairperson.

4. The parties may state objections to the questions posed by or on behalf of the Board.
5. At the conclusion of such inquiry, the party who did not call the witness may conduct one round of cross-examination, limited in scope to the questions and responses of the Board's inquiry, following which the party who called the witness may conduct one round of re-direct examination also so limited.
6. The Board may initiate additional cycles of this process for a witness.
7. The witness shall be excused when the Board is satisfied that its inquiry of the witness has been completed.
8. The Board may defer its questioning of a witness until both parties have rested and for that purpose may continue a subpoena.
9. In any proceeding the Board may modify this process.

6.11.4 Upon motion of a party, the Board may order that objections or other discovery matters requiring decision or ruling shall be acted upon exclusively by the Board or by such other person or persons as the Board may designate.

6.11.5. The Board may deliberate in closed session as required during the course of its hearings to act on motions, objections or administrative matters.

6.11.6 The Board may modify the order of testimony or make such additional rules at each hearing as it deems necessary for the conduct of the hearing.

6.12 Decision.

6.12.1 After hearing all the evidence and the argument and summation statements of the parties, the Board may convene into closed session(s) to deliberate for as many days as necessary upon giving notice of convened dates. Within three (3) days of the close of the hearing, the Board shall produce and file with the Secretary of the Board a written decision including Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and an Order for penalties, if any, that shall be taken against the accused. If one (1) or more Board Members disagrees with the majority opinion, the member(s) may write and file a dissenting opinion.

6.12.2 No Subordinate may be suspended, reduced in rank, suspended and reduced in rank, or removed by the Board based on charges filed by the Board, members of the Board, an aggrieved person or the Chief, unless the Board determines that there is just cause, as described in this paragraph, to sustain the charges. In making its determination, the Board shall apply the following standards, to the extent applicable:

1. Whether the Subordinate could reasonably be expected to have had knowledge of the probable consequences of the alleged conduct.
2. Whether the rule or order that the Subordinate allegedly violated is reasonable.
3. Whether the Chief, before filing the charge against the Subordinate, made a reasonable effort to discover whether the Subordinate did in fact violate a rule or order.

4. Whether the effort described under Section 6.13.2.3 was fair and objective.
5. Whether the Chief discovered substantial evidence that the Subordinate violated the rule or order as described in the charges filed against the Subordinate.
6. Whether the Chief is applying the rule or order fairly and without discrimination against the Subordinate.
7. Whether the proposed discipline reasonably relates to the seriousness of the alleged violation and to the Subordinate's record of service with the Chief's department.

6.12.3 If the Board determines that the charges are not sustained, the accused, if suspended, shall be immediately reinstated and all lost pay restored. If the Board determines the charges are sustained, the accused, by order of the Board, may be suspended, reduced in rank, or suspended and reduced in rank, or removed, as the good of the Department may require.

6.13 Hearing Procedure.

6.13.1 The Board will arrange for the proceedings to be recorded by a Court Reporter. The Board or any party may order a transcript at their expense. The Board will order a transcript at its expense in the event of an appeal. The original transcript will be filed with the Secretary of the Board.

6.13.2 The parties and/or their attorney will identify themselves for the record, beginning with the Complainant.

6.13.3 All witnesses will be sworn.

6.13.4 Each party, beginning with the Complainant, will have the opportunity to make a brief opening statement to the Board, stating what evidence they will introduce and what they intend to prove.

6.13.5 Complainant will introduce evidence/call witnesses first. Witnesses called by Complainant will be directly examined by Complainant or his/her attorney, followed by cross-examination by the accused or his/her attorney. Board Members may question the witness at any time. The parties will be entitled to redirect and recross-examination.

6.13.6 Following the close of Complainant's evidence, the accused will have the right to introduce evidence/call witnesses according to the same procedure as set forth in Section 6.14.5, above.

6.13.7 After all witnesses have testified, Complainant may make a closing statement to the Board, which will be followed by accused's closing statement. Complainant will have the opportunity to make a rebuttal argument following accused's closing statement. The Board may invite written briefs or memoranda following the conclusion of testimony in lieu of closing statements or oral argument, formally continuing the hearing for the receipt of the briefs or memoranda and for deliberations.

6.13.8 Failure of a Complainant to appear at the Prehearing Conference or the Hearing or to comply with these rules may be grounds in the discretion of the Board to dismiss the Complaint either with or without prejudice, that is, with or without the right to re-file the complaint.

6.14 Appeal of Decision.
